Jay could bring some back to the office for you!
You can get some next time you are on the Maine project.. and lobster!

Or, we can get clams at the beach plum next time you are in Newburyport.

See.. its all about the food choices.

Okay lets talk tomorrow so I can set you straight ..

I'll give you a call tomorrow then. I was going to go up to Essex to boat out into the marsh and do some eyeball surveys of marsh elevations for the thin layer placement study. But I gave up my seat on the boat to Jay Mackay due to a lot of work here in cube city. No fried clams for me.
